FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Southborough, MA – February 1, 2011 - Device Technologies names Top Distributor for 2010, Great North Technologies Incorporated

Device Technologies, Inc. has announced that Great North Technologies, (Montreal, Canada) has been named Distributor of the Year for 2010.

DTI President Nick Petri cited Great North Technologies' sales growth and inventory commitment as the driving factors in this award.

“Great North Technologies tremendous sales growth and willingness to put our products on their shelves has made this a successful partnership for both our companies,” Petri said.

Meanwhile north of the border, Craig Belanger, President of Great North Technologies offers, “Teaming up with Device Tech for their unique products and materials and their commitment to delivering valued products has been a real success and provided Great North Technologies key differentiation in the marketplace. We expect our sales expansion to continue in 2011.”
